FREQUENT HOSTESS.

of the elbow, were of silver lace, the sleeves and the shoulder straps form-ing the only ormanentation on the

The same evening Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, wore a very Lace Tunic Over White gown of silver lace, a Satin Petticoat. tunic of lace over a petticoat of white satin.

The silver lace tunic is made on extremely long lines, the upper part or bodice being a long basque in effect, the girdle coming well down on the hips, from which is suspended the skirt of the tunic.

The back if all of the silver lace, but in front the tunic opens, revealing a corsage of plain cloth of silver with a four-inch band of silver embroidery edging the decolletage.

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, whose guest Mrs. Marshall was, wore a handsome gown of midnight blue satin, the bodice composed almost entirely of fine black lace over white chiffon.

The lace is put on in taps, as it were,

The lace is put on in taps, as it were, on either side forming a sort of bolero effect, while another motif of lace ex-tends upward in the center of the cor-tenus upward in the center of the cor-sage, the point ending at the decollet-age. The low neck is cut round and is finished with an inch band of passe-menterie, a piece of which runs down the shoulder for a depth of say four

The sleeves, like so many of the newest ones, is simply a plain little elbow length sleeve of black tulle, entirely devoid of any ornamentation.

Another new motif in sleeves is seen in a gown worn by Mme. Hauge, whose gown in this Mme. Hauge Wears a instance is a pink taffeta. New Sleeve.

made pannier in drapery over a petticoat of silver lace, the edges of the overskirt drapery bound in inch wide gold braid. The striking and individual touch to the gown, however, is the fur trim-ming, a two inch band of beaver, khich is brought across the low neck in the back and coming round goes round the arm forming a dropped sleeve. Shoul-der straps of silver supplement the fur sleeves.

A new note in the fashioning of gowns is the combining of entirely different colors

Fronts All Different of shades of col-From the Backs. ors, or even matimes the front of a gown appearing quite different from the back. Mrs.

gown of pale pink satin, made with a tunic of satin over

Pretty Gowns on a petticoat of silPretty Women. The corsage is em broidered with silver as is the twice.

Miss Marie Tunstall of this city, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wallworth of Philadelphia, was the guest of honor at a luncheon, followed by bridge, given by Mrs. Wallworth Tuesday at the Bellvue-Stratford Hotel. Mrs. Henri de Sibour wears a dainty silver combined with tuile of the same shade and heavy cream lace. The bodice is of cream lace, a corslet model which extends well below the hips, the Edwards of 113 13th street southeast, Gowns and Their Wearers.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, looks particularly handsome in a black evelet gown, which also are least to the president's Wife. I also have the president's Wife. Trimmed least to the prought straight across the breast, and most provided and the back of the neck and holds a capelle drapery couling the trimmed to the bands outlined with silver, a line of the floor with hardly a break.

The trimming in from the corsage diagonally upover the shoulders houlders houlders boulders to the president of the gown the hands around her throat like a collar or bound the center of the corsage diagonally upover the shoulders to boulders the tuile that forms the upper boads after passing over the shoulders houlders to boulder a capelle drapery continuing to the floor with hardly a break.

The trimming in front is entirely of green beads, outlined with silver, a line of the beads around her throat like a collar or boad, and the muff is the regulation the center of the corsage diagonally upover the shoulders houlders h miss Margaret Draper wears an evening coat that in the combination of colors is more or Miss Draper's Soft less unique. The Miss Draper's Soft less unique. The Old Rose Coat. coat is velvet, of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose, and a band of a soft French old rose.

MISS MARY RILEY. Daughter of Mrs. Mary Riley.

Mrs. McPherson has had to cancel all social obligations for the remainder of the season, on account of the death of her father, Mr. F. S. De Land.

broidered with silver, as is the tunic about the bottom, and both bedice and tunic are trimmed with fox.

Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte has a picturesque gown, which has borrowed its main points from medieval days. It is of madonna blue satin, brocaded in silver combined with tulle of the same.

party Helmont and Mrs. George Howard both have worn gowns answering this description lately. Mrs. Belmont's is a pink satin. combined with cerises or coral brocade developed in silver The satin is of the very palest shade of sky-blue chifforn figured in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of sky-blue chifforn figured in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of sky-blue chifforn figured in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of sky-blue chifforn figured in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of sky-blue chifforn figured in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the party were at one time together in flowers of a deep amethyst, with lace of the deep and the contrasting note introduced by the coral as a contrasting note.

Mrs. J. H. Cory and daughter. Mrs. Mrs. George Howard's gown is a girdle of coral as a contrasting note.

Mrs. J. H. Cory and daughter. Mrs. Mrs. George Howard's gown is similar to differ the party were also entired may find something to keep them at the other ends, only that the effect of the gown, however, day set allowed the contrasting note.

Mrs. J. H. Cory and daughter. Mrs. Howard's gown is similar to make the party were also entired may find the deep residual to the party were also entired may for the deep residual to say where one beginn and the other ends, only that the effect of the gown however, wher

NOW LADIES Preserve your youthful appearance by letting us demonstrate to you our Wonderful BURNHAM SYSTEM of Preservation.

HAIR DRESSING.
SCALP TREATMENT,
FACIAL MASSAGE.
BLACK HEADS.
INSTANTANEOUS BLEACH.
BUST DEVELOPING.
CHILD'S HAIR CUTTING.
SINGEING, BLEACHING AND DYEING.
HAIR GOODS AND COSMETICS.

Kalos Beauty Parlors 1006 F Street Phone Main 8422. Over Riker-Hegeman Drug Store

at Friendship, overlooking the box gardens, is literally honeycombed with tiny little houses, so placed that one doesn't notice them unless a burst of song from a martin or a wren causes one to look up and see where the music is coming from.

A witticism by Miss Helen Cannon, daughter of the former Speaker, is being passed around. One night recently she stood in a vestibule with a number of friends, waiting for their carriages and motors. So slowly did the carriage line move, allowing but one or two to go at a time, and requiring the remainder to shiver in disappointment, that Miss Cannon was moved to spontaneously exclaim. Miss Cannon was moved to sponta neously exclaim. . "Few are called, but many are frozen.

Mrs. James L. Pugh, and Miss Gladis Pugh, wife and daughter of Judge Pugh, will be at home Thursday, February 3, from 3 to 6 o'clock, at their home, 3402 Mount Pleasant street. They will be assisted y Mrs. Pugh's mother, Mrs. W. H. Sowder of Allentown Pa; the Misses Mary, Alice and Serena Pugh, Miss Nell Allan of California and Mrs. Edward Pugh of Chevy Chase. re- Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Thomas Bradley will be at home Tuesdays, February 1 and 8, at 1601 28th street.

Mrs. Clarendon Smith, 1313 Rhode Island avenue, will be at home, Feb-ruary 3. Assisting her will be her daughters, Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mrs. George Birchfield.

Mrs. Robert Page, will be at home informally Tuesday afternoon, from 3

She will be assisted by the wives and daughters of the North Carolina

Mrs. Fred Dennett and Miss Dennett and Mrs. Charles Bennett Smith of New York will be at home informally at Mrs. Dennett's residence, 1739 Q street, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Clay Tallman, wife of the Com-nissioner of the general land office, will be at home Wednesday, February Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, wife of Jus tice Hughes, will not receive tomor

Raccar Canoe Club gave its first dance of the season at the Arcade balloom Friday night.

Among those present were Misses Nellie C. Weaver, Rose Carroll, Eleanor Clements, J. Flood, S. L. Videtto, Carolyn Claxton, Ethel Mullan, D. L. Talbert, Hazel Talbert, Carrie Lichenfield, Viola Oliver, Edith Head, F. Schuman, M. Raymond, Carrie Rogers, Maud Rogers, Edith Evans, E. M. Swan, A. Davidge, Agathea Lanigan, M. Maddox, Florence Benton, A. Wise Annette reighton, Blanche Klinger, Katherine Helen Marston, Sadler, Manning, Chaves, Wright, Newman, Fowler, Hoover, Nolan, McCormack, Gibbs, Kail, Priest, McGowan, Oliver, Petrold and Ludwig: Messrs. J. T. L. Wright, Fred D. Ramsdell, A. A. Farrell, J. T. Davis, R. E. Esher, A. W. Shea, R. E. Titlow, M. A. Halloran, B. G. Heidenreich, Raymond Norton, Irving Lower, S. Taylor, R. J. Woodward, J. L. Richer, Robert Moore, M. Oliver, George Gentner, C. D. Gibbons, Louis Allwine, Getsinger, E. H. Blumer, J. Erwin Proudley, C. W. Griffin, J. P. Rose, J. M. Kreiter, R. D. Schlegel, J. F. Gathridge, J. Rhodes, Phelps, J. F. Douglas, R. P. Hollingsworth, J. E. Beand, Clynes, R. E. Boothby, G. W. Wright, Purkison, Melick, L. A. Maus, W. J. Moman, J. M. McLachden, J. W. Mann, E. F. Ellason, J. Ruffa, Paul Bergh, Raymond Evans, John King, M. J. Frailey, Byron Gallagher and Mark Burnham. The chaperons included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bergh, Mrs. E. S. Bergh and Mrs. Evans. Helen Marston, Sadler, Manning, regardless of their cost to us.

In Honor of Mrs. Armstrong. Congressional Club Reception

MRS. JOSEPH ROMANZO EDSON.

Who has been entertaining extensively for her daughter, Mrs. Horatio H.

Armstrong.

Mrs. Horatio H. Armstrong of Hart ford. Conn., who has been on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Romanzo Edson, has been greatly entertained during her stay. Mrs. Edson recently gave several de-table was exquisitely decorated with and the center piece of yellow tulips, Mrs. Otho Magruder Muncaster will pink roses with corsage bouquets of violets and lilies of the valley at each Wednesday, February 9, and Wednesday, February 16, informally, at the Beacon apartment, Calvert and Adams Mill road.

In guests on this occasion included Mrs. Henry Pinches Mrs. Pomerene received the guests, and the center piece of yellow tulips.

Mrs. Pomerene received the guests, and the center piece of yellow tulips.

Mrs. Pomerene received the guests, and the center piece of yellow tulips.

Mrs. Pomerene received the guests, and the center piece of yellow tulips.

Mrs. Henry Pinckney McCain, Mrs. S Mrs. John Hall Stephens will not receive tomorrow, but will be at home Monday, February 7, and March 6, from 4 to 6.

Owing to absence from the city, Mrs. John H. Hewson will not receive tomorrow, but she will be at home with Miss Schoffeld Mondays, February 7 and 21, at 6.

Raccar Club Dance.

Mrs. Henry Pinckney McCain, Mrs. S.
B. M. Young, Mrs. Thomas Hutchinson, Mrs. Bowman H. McCalla, Mrs. Stimson Brown, Mrs. Henry Kingsbury and Mrs. James D. Gatewood.
At a tea also given by Mrs. Edson the assistants included the bridesmaids who attended Mrs. Armstrong at her marriage, among them Miss Porothy Brooks, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss Dorothy Adams, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss Dorothy Adams, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss Do Hosts at a Large Reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Churchill Cook and Miss Mayker held a large receptio Thursday, when over 200 guests called. The parlors, reception hall and dining room were beautifully decorated with pink carnations, southern smilax and palms. A stringed orchestra played throughout the afternoon behind a screen of palms in the reception hall. Those who assisted the hostess were Mrs. Frank S. Greenwalt, Mrs. John Kalfus, Lottie Knight, Elsie Luckett, James T. McDermott, Mrs. Claude Mil-James T. McDermott, Mrs. Claude Miller, Mrs. James W. Dpocy, Mrs. Daisy Bowden, Dr. Helen Perkins, Mrs. B. Gish, Miss Sylvia Metcalf, Mrs. Ashton Todd, Mrs. Frederick von Dochenhausen, Mrs. Charles E. Nicol of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Cathrine Collins, Mrs. George Metcalf, Mrs. Joseph Russell, Mrs. William Gordon, Mrs. Martin Littlefield, Mrs. Robert H. Hill, Mrs. Lelia Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Key, Mrs. Sally Grant Gates and Mrs. Henry E. Mott. Miss Sylvia 'Metcalf and Mrs. Metcalf gave several vocal solos during the gave several vocal solos during the Sailing for Bermuda.

Mrs. William E. Chilton, wife of Senator Chilton, will sail February 2 for Bermuda to recuperate from a severe attack of grip contracted early in December.

l. Brooksa

When you consider the high character of the apparel always shown by M. Brooks & Co. and note the low prices now quoted you will realize that this is the greatest value giving sale of the season in women's apparel. We have priced these Suits and Coats for quick clearance

Stylish Suits in a Wide Range of Handsome $1 4.75

About 20 Handsome Coats. That Sold Up $12.95

Spring Suits and Gowns

know the latest style tendencies will find a visit here interesting.

Advance spring styles are now on exhibition. Those who would

Smart Suits in Choice Materials. Sold Up to $25.00

Just 25 Good Looking and Serviceable

Coats. Sold Up to $25

weekly reception Friday afternoon, the artists being Miss Eleanor Caldlightful parties for her daughter, unusually attractive in its spring at-among them a luncheon, when the Celebrate Anniversary.

Georgetown, March 3, 1829. Mrs. Goddard was Maria C. Goldsborough of

Improvements You Will Appreciate The Borden Patented Hair Goods Switches Absolutely

Patented Upright Shampooing.
No basin to lean over.
No boards to recline on.
Only the best Italian Castile
soap used—50c.
Or our new Henna Shampoo to bring out the red tone—75c.

Borden's, 1115 GSt. Specialists in Hair Goods.

The Congressional Club held its usual welk who read an original play, and Miss Leckie in a song recital. Tea was Maryland. She was born May 26, 1830. They have resided in Washington all of their lives.

Ashury Park Atlantic City

Can be separated or reversed—will positively outwear several of the old styles. Switches made over-Combings made up.

Stemless

Winter Suits and Coats at Extraordinary Clearance Prices

Our original "Military-Belt" Corset was introduced in 1905. It reigned supreme for years. A host of women would wear no other corset; and many thousands remember it yet.

Three years ago came that wretched fashion craze—the "slouch." Too many women changed from corsets to "rags;" but now, common sense having returned, they long for their old favorite.

Well, it's here! We have made a new Military-Belt Corset that's even more graceful and helpful than the old one, and the Introductory Sale is now on. Two models, for SLENDER and MEDIUM figures only:

You can't "slouch" in this corset-the Military-Belt bids you to stand erect, to breathe deeply and to

If "topless" corsets have left you with a lump of fat above the waist-line, these corsets will take care

Ask your dealer for the NEW Nemo "MILITARY-BELT."

Our Annual January Shoe Clearance Sale

Nordix Club Dance.

The Nordix Club held its January dance on the 26th, in the ballroom of the Portner. Refreshments were served in the dining room during the intermission, followed by dancing until midnight. Those present were Miss Mary Hungerford, president, Mr. Bernard Mc. Lewis Labofish, Miss Thelma Russell, Mr. William Schrieber, Mr. Riston Schroth, Miss Georgia Lewis, Mr. Riston Schroth, Miss Nora Conners, Mr. Cleveland McKee, Miss Marie Robey, chapteroned by Mrs. P. C. Hungerford.

This sale surpasses in importance any like event offered to Washington women in many months. $7.00 and $6.00 grades, now.....$4.95 $5.00 grades, now.....$4.15 $4.50 grades, now......$3.65 $4.00 grades, now......$3.25 $3.50 grades, now.....$2.95

An opportunity to get a new pair of highest quality shoes with the "Right Now" style at legitimate reduc-Palais Royal

A. Lisner.

G and 11th Sts. Shoe Dept .- Second Floor.

ARY-BELT 1905 1916 MODEL

> The CORSET of HEALTH, STYLE and COMFORT FOR SLENDER WOMEN

No. 330-With short top $3.00

assume the poise of youthful health and grace.

In appearance, construction, material and style, this corset sets a new high standard of value at $3.00. It is the some of comfort, and the best corset in existence for women of slender and medium figures.

Nemo Hygienia-Eashion Institute, N. Y. Good Stores Everywhere